

DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

The proximity of the surgery centers to our practice is a convenience to our patients and their families.

Dr. Mosiello may be a limited partner and have an ownership interest in the surgery center where you have your procedure. This relationship enables him to have a voice in the administration of the policies at the facility. His involvement helps to ensure the highest quality of surgical care for our patients.

We respect the rights of our patients to choose their surgeons and where they wish to have their surgeries. You will not be treated any differently based on the surgical facility you choose. We are pleased that you have chosen Tampa Palms Plastic Surgery for your care.
